LIKE A BOMB SHELL

MR. BRYAN'S RESOLUTION DISTURBED CONVENTION PEACE.

IT TOOK THEIR BREATH

So Suddenly Was the Issue Precipitated by Nebraskan That It Created Consternation.

(By W. C. VAN CLEVE.)

Baltimore, Md., June 28.—In the midst of happiness and tranquility last night, William J. Bryan dropped a match into a keg of powder, and the explosion was like unto the sudden outpouring of a latent volcano into a valley of quiet and contentment. After three days of maneuvering and skirmishing, intermingled with fierce flashes of battle, the hosts went into the convention tonight feeling that the danger line had been passed.

Reports had been received from the committee on credentials and all contests had been settled, the platform was passed until after the nomination of candidates and the report of the committee on permanent organization had been received and unanimously adopted. Ollie James had made his address and the rules of the convention had been adopted making the next thing in order the placing of candidates in nomination. It was believed that all preliminary flashes were over, and that the final struggle among the candidates was at hand.

Both delegates and visitors had come to the hall with peace in their hearts and joy in their souls. A tremendous crowd had worked its way into the hall, more than twenty thousand, it was said. Many had come hours before in order to get choice seats. As the time for the resumption of business drew near the good natured masses stopped their chatter among themselves to cheer the entrance of prominent men whom they recognized. Mr. Bryan appeared and a great cheer went up. He sat down in the speaker's stand, gave the big palm leaf fan a few vigorous jerks and arose to confer with some friend. The crowd cheered, he stepped over and shook hands with Mrs. Taft, who occupied a prominent place in the gallery and had been an interested spectator during the day, and the crowd cheered some more.

The chairman rapped for order, a minister offered an eloquent prayer in a clear, strong voice and the crowd strained its ear for the next announcement. All were feeling good. Then Mr. Bryan arose and walked quickly to the railing about the speaker's stand. His face suddenly took on a determined look, his eyes flashed and he asked unanimous consent to present a resolution out of order for immediate consideration. Mr. Bryan had not appeared at the hall since the first day's skirmish and instinct told the crowd to look out. An ominous, expectant silence settled over the eager thousands, and the reading of the resolution was demanded. It proposed that the nomination of any candidate "who is the representative of or under any obligation to J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas F. Ryan, August Belmont or any other member of the privilege hunting and favor seeking class" would not be acceptable, and it further demanded the withdrawal from the convention of any delegates "constituting or representing any of the above interests."

The resolution took the breath of the assembled hosts for a moment. Its revolutionary nature and the complications that might ensue were quickly realized by the friends of the various candidates, and a storm broke that turned the tranquility into pandemonium. All the former exciting scenes of this convention were as a prayer meeting as compared to the situation so suddenly precipitated. Unanimous consent for the consideration of the resolution was denied, and the Nebraskan asked for a vote. He made an impassioned plea for its adoption. A half dozen Virginians were on their feet protesting that it proposed an invasion of the rights of the states to name their own representatives in a national convention. Points of order that the convention had no right to consider such a proposition after the delegates had been regularly seated in the convention were made. Chairman James ruled that the convention had the right to do anything that it wanted to do. So the fight raged.

Believing that the Nebraskan had made a mistake and had gone too far, his close friends and some of Governor Wilson's leaders crowded excitedly about Mr. Bryan and pleaded with him. His jaws remained firmly set and his smile and apparent coolness had not deserted him. Several men rushed to the platform to answer him and they were wildly cheered. Senator Vardeman, friendly to Mr. Bryan, declared it was time for "reason and common sense to rule." Ex-Governor McCorkle of West Virginia declared it a "senseless and foolish resolution." Congressman Flood of Virginia, in a keen, penetrating voice that carried to the uttermost parts of the hall declared that Virginia had as honest Democrats as Mr. Bryan ever dared to be, and that they could take care of their internal affairs, and that they resented the interference of "the only man who wishes to destroy the Democratic party." This bold declaration brought a wild volley of cheers and hisses. Mr. Bryan then proposed that if the Virginia and New York delegates would make the request he would withdraw the last part of the resolution demanding that certain delegates be excluded from the convention. This infuriated some of the delegates from both states, and they promptly announced that they would ask nothing of him and he could withdraw it himself if he wanted to. They preferred to vote on it as it stood.

The whole convention was in an uproar. Mr. Bryan made another short address and was derided, jeered and hissed along with cheers. He had lost control of the crowd, evidently a new experience, and many refused to listen. For the first time he looked worried and his smile vanished. While the uproar continued he withdrew the objectionable paragraph on the ground that he did not want to interject the question of state authority, and the resolution with teeth drawn went to a vote. There was wild confusion and a long time was required. The states began to vote "no," but on second thought and after a hasty conference of the leaders they changed their votes and the proposition was carried almost unanimously. The New York delegation, including Mr. Belmont voted "aye," and the Virginia delegation, including Ryan, did likewise. They declared that the Democratic party had never been allied with the interests to which Mr. Bryan objected and that no convention had ever upheld them, and there was no objection to the converse of the proposition.

* * *

All this followed a day session of sharp interchange. Mr. Bryan had kept his own counsel except for his immediate advisory cabinet, and the full purpose of his resolution at the particular time is only a matter of conjecture. The report from the committee on resolutions and platform had been, at his request, laid over until after the nomination of a presidential candidate. The first opinion, however, is that he made a grave mistake, seriously injured Wilson's chances and incidentally put himself further out of the running.

* * *

After quiet was restored nominating speeches were begun. They were closed and the first ballot was taken at 4 o'clock this morning. Many complications have been injected into the situation, but Clark stock still rules the favorite, and it is still confidently believed that his nomination can be accomplished. Harmon is dead, Wilson is believed impossible. The demonstration at the close of Senator Reed's nominating speech was one of the greatest scenes ever enacted in a convention. Thousands of small flags were in the air, hats were waved, a deafening roar of voices continued for one hour and five minutes. Toy balloons on which Clark's name had been pasted were thrown in the air, flags, banners, pictures, state standards were grabbed up and carried in an endless procession. State after state followed. Men mounted into the officers' stand and yelled and waved their banners. Speaker Clark's daughter was grabbed up by strong men, draped in the folds of a great American flag and was carried on their shoulders. One man moved that Clark be declared the nominee by acclamation. He put the vote himself and declared it carried. It was one of the greatest demonstrations ever accorded a candidate, and was renewed time and again as men arose from the various states to second his nomination.

The Wilson demonstration was also a great one. In addition to other features, they pushed a band past the doorkeepers from the outside and followed it about the hall. Baltimore is getting a run for its money. This convention is no tame affair.

MARSHAL OF SHERIDAN ATTACKED ON WAY FROM CHURCH

HIS WIFE WAS WITH HIM

A Warrant Sworn Out for Arrest of Assailant, Who It is Rumored Has Left Neighborhood.

G. A. Jones, city marshal of Sheridan, was attacked Sunday afternoon while walking down the road at Gaynor by Glenn Barton, who knocked two teeth out and bruised his face. Jones was unconscious for a few hours and was taken at once to his home at Sheridan. Jones and his wife had been to Gaynor to attend the basket dinner given by the Christian church of that place.

The trouble, it is said, was over Jones arresting Barton at Sheridan a few weeks ago for fast driving in an automobile.

Mr. Jones, accompanied by Charles Evans of Parnell and Nelson Young and Ira Cline of Sheridan, were in the city Monday afternoon and Jones had a warrant issued for the arrest of Barton for common assault. It is rumored that Barton, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton, living one mile east of Gaynor, has left the neighborhood. Another party in Maryville Monday from Gaynor was William Killam, E. V. Husband, Lou Nigh, W. E. Sparks, Grover Dinsmore and J. C. Archer, who returned from a visit at Gaynor.

NO STORY HOUR

At the Library Tuesday—Miss Albert Not Feeling Well.

Maryville's little folks, who have been hearing the stories at the city library every Tuesday morning, will have to be disappointed this week, because the story teller, Miss Ada Albert, is not feeling able for her duty. The hot weather of the past few days is responsible for her indisposition, and although she is not down sick she does not feel that she could tell the stories well enough Tuesday morning. She promises to be at her best next week, however, and will have some most delightful stories for the boys and girls who come to hear her.

BROUGHT BACK FLETCHER WRAY

Had Been in Asylum at St. Joseph Since 1895—Will Probably be Sent to Poor Farm.

Fletcher Wray, who formerly lived northeast of the city, and who has been a private patient at the St. Joseph asylum, was brought to Maryville Saturday by Sheriff Tilson. Wray was sent Monday to the poor farm by the county court as he is not violently insane. He was brought here as there were no funds to pay for his keeping down at the asylum.

Saw Granddaughter Graduate.

Mrs. J. W. Houghtaling of Bolckow returned home Friday evening from a two days' visit in Maryville with Rev. and Mrs. C. H. John. She came to attend the commencement exercises of the Maryville Business college, her granddaughter, Miss Beulah McCoppin, being a member of the class and winning the gold medal and purse of money.

Papa Said "Yes."

Theodose Weisenberger and Zada E. Blacketer of Maryville, who were refused a marriage license in Kansas City, Kan., Friday afternoon because the would-be bridegroom is but 19 years old and did not have the written consent of his father, were granted a license Saturday, according to the Kansas City Journal. The bride is 20 years old.

Guests From St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hax Smith of St. Joseph were guests over Sunday of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. Miss Maida Michau of St. Joseph, who arrived Saturday night, is a guest at the Townsend home for this week.

Will Spend Summer With Sister.

Misses Louise and Marie McCann of Clyde were Maryville visitors Saturday. Miss Marie went to Creston, Ia., to spend the remainder of the summer with her sister, Mrs. N. F. Weber.

Was in the City.

Orel R. Geyer, formerly of Maryville, but with the Des Moines Register-Leader, was in the city Sunday.

WILSON GOING UP

THIRTIETH BALLOT PUTS NEW JERSEY MAN IN LEAD.

CAN HE BREAK DEADLOCK?

As Ballot After Ballot Comes in a Steady Gain is Shown for Wilson and Loss for Clark.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—The convention met this morning at 11:05. Another conference of leaders held this morning with no result and no prospects for nomination today. W. J. Bryan enters hall after invocation and is received with demonstration.

As they were taking the twenty-seventh ballot, or the first one today, the New York vote was challenged and poll ordered. Stanchfield, former candidate for governor of that state, secures consent to explain his vote. He takes stand and attacks Bryan for his attack on New York delegation, and calls Bryan money hunting, favor hunting Marplot from Nebraska. He says no candidate banded with Bryan is going to carry New York by half a million. He concluded by saying that Bryan should be expelled from the convention because of his writing for pay in favor of Roosevelt, and that Bryan never intended to support the candidate nominated by the convention unless the candidate was Bryan. Stanchfield closed his speech by voting for Wilson. The New York delegation on this ballot stood 2 for Underwood, 9 for Wilson and 79 for Clark, but under the unit rule of that state Clark received the ninety delegates. Senator O'Gorman of New York also voted for Wilson.

Twenty-Seventh Ballot.

Clark 469, Wilson 406½, Underwood 112, Foss 38, Marshall 30, Harmon 29, Bryan 1, absent 21½.

Twenty-Eighth Ballot.

On this ballot the Indiana delegation, 30 in number, switched from Governor Marshall and gave Kern 1 and Wilson 29. The result of this ballot stood as follows: Clark 468½, Wilson 447½, Underwood 112½, Foss 38, Harmon 29, Kern 1 and Bryan 1.

Twenty-Ninth Ballot.

Clark 468½, Wilson 438, Underwood 112, Foss 38, Harmon 29, Kern 4.

Thirtieth Ballot.

Clark 455, Wilson 460, Harmon 19, Underwood 121½, Kern 2, Foss 30.

Thirty-First Ballot.

Clark 446½, Wilson 475½, Harmon 17, Underwood 114, Kern 2, Foss 30.

Thirty-Second Ballot.

Clark 445, Wilson 478½, Underwood 119½, Harmon 14 Kern 2, Foss 28. This was the last ballot taken up to the time of going to press at 3:30.

A basket dinner was held at Clearmont Sunday by the Christian church of that place in the church grove. Rev. Cole is the pastor of the church.

Mrs. Armstrong Here.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong of Trimble, Mo., arrived in Maryville Friday night on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary Malotte of South Market street.

Visiting in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wiles went to Kansas City Saturday evening to spend a few days with Mr. Wiles' sister, Mrs. Lafayette Rambo.

John Porter of Guilford was a city visitor Monday.

READY FOR CELEBRATION.

All Arrangements Nearly Completed for the Fourth in Maryville.

Nearly all arrangements are completed for the Fourth of July celebration in Maryville. One of the main features of the day will be the barbecue dinner to be served at noon in the court house yard, when two beeves will be used. The beeves will be roasted in vats in the lot west of Robey's garage, and Martin Borrusch and Frank Bolin are in charge of this work.

Another speaker for the celebration will be Dr. H. K. Taylor. B. R. Martin has been secured for a talk. The speakers' stand will be in the southwest corner of the court house yard.

The official program for the day will be announced tomorrow.

SANITY CASE BEFORE COURT.

Jeff Lambert of Barnard Brought to Maryville Saturday—Threatened to Kill His Wife.

Jeff Lambert, who lives south of Barnard, was brought to Maryville Saturday evening by Constable Jim Wyatt and Charles Swartz. Lambert has been mentally off for some time, and told Sheriff Tilson that he was formerly in an asylum in Virginia. Lambert threatened to kill his wife in one of his spells last week. He has been living in the Barnard neighborhood the past four or five years, coming there from Virginia, and has a wife and family of six children. He is 40 years old. His case will come up before the county court probably late Monday.

REACTING IN CLARK'S FAVOR.

Bryan's Fight, Says Harry M. Irwin, is Making Clark's Forces Determined and Loyal.

A telegram received by Frank Owens from Harry Irwin at Baltimore, the message being sent late Sunday night, says:

"Conference held Sunday strong for Clark. Bryan's injustice reacting in Clark's favor. About 500 pledges to stick with Clark forever. Friends determined to fight to finish and looks more encouraging for Monday. Probably will regain majority. Managers think it must be Clark or long deadlock. Can't guess outcome, but our delegates seem determined and loyal."

BACK FROM VACATION TRIP.

Rev. W. J. Parvin Returned Saturday Afternoon After a Month's Visit.

Rev. W. J. Parvin, pastor of the M. E. church, South, returned Saturday afternoon in his automobile from a month's vacation trip at Kansas City. While in that city he had charge of the building of a residence in North Kansas City on some property he owns there. Mrs. Parvin and son, Julian, will remain in Kansas City until the middle of August.

Rev. Parvin occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church, South, both Sunday morning and evening, and was greeted by large audiences.

HAS POSITION WITH BANK.

John Owen Murrin Accepted Place With First National Bank at Atchison, Kan.

John Owen Murrin, who has been attending St. Benedict Business college at Atchison, Kan., the past year, has accepted a position with the First National bank of that city, and commenced his work Monday. John M. Murrin visited his son at Atchison Sunday.

JUNE WAS A GOOD MONTH.

Twenty-Four Marriage Licenses During the Month as Compared With Fourteen Last June.

June was a good month for Recorder J. Arthur Wray. With the granting of a marriage license to Ed Anderson and Miss Anna Clouse, both of Elmo, late Saturday evening, there were twenty-four marriage licenses issued during the month. This is a gain of ten as compared with June, 1911, as there were only fourteen marriage licenses issued then.

HELLER APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO COME UP THEN.

LAMBERT WAS NOT INSANE

Testimony of Several Witnesses Was Heard—Court Looking After a Bridge Near Clearmont.

The county court, composed of Judges Thornhill, Blackford and Thompson, met Monday and decided that the Heller dramshop application would be taken up on Wednesday morning. Attorney Ellis G. Cook, representing the "drys," said Monday that the case was purely a point of law, and if the county court finds they have jurisdiction, of course, they will issue the license to Heller, as he has enough qualified signers.

The court on Monday afternoon took up the case of S. L. Lambert of near Barnard, an information being sworn out by Richard Heely that he was of unsound mind. After the court had heard the testimony of several witnesses they decided that the man was of sound mind.

The court left late Monday afternoon in the Toad Hollow neighborhood, near noon to look after a ditch and bridge Clearmont.

COLORED CELEBRATION

In Maryville Next Tuesday and Wednesday

Mr. M. R. Bernay, One of the Most Remarkable of Modern Clairvoyants and the Most Expert Astrologer in the United State.

Office at 201 Buchanan Street, Corner of Fourth, Open From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Prof. Bernay is the Clairvoyant who located J. W. Graham of St. Joseph, a young man, who had been missing two years. Mrs. Graham, the mother, consulted Mr. Bernay, who while in a clairvoyant condition stated that the man was an enlisted sailor on the Battleship Kearsarge and that he would be found there. Telegraphic inquiry confirmed the prediction.

Mr. Julius Daniel of Joplin is now a wealthy mine owner, but 2 years ago was working in a mine at $3.00 a day in that city. By mere accident he met Mr. Bernay, who pointed out an opportunity to him. Mr. Daniel acted upon the advice with the result that, as he writes in a letter of thanks to Mr. Bernay, "It started me on the road to success and in ten months was worth $18,000.00 to me."

Miss F. D. of St. Joseph consulted with Bernay after circumstances had broken up a dear friendsip between her and a prominent young professional man. In two weeks time through the clairvoyant's advice and help the trouble was settled and the friendship renewed with marriage as a near result.

John Emerson, a prosperous farmer living near Springfield, had buried his money in his backyard, having no faith in banks. He died on April 21, 1910, suddenly without having time to tell the family about this. When no money was found, a son consulted with Mr. Bernay and this resulted in the recovery of $4,200.00 and valuable papers.

Without asking a single question of his caller, Bernay reveals every important event in his client's life even to the meaning of them in full, showing them how to attain the success they desire in business, investments, speculation, love, courtship, marriage, divorce, lost or absent friends, lawsuits, fortunes, money affairs, health, wills, deeds or anything they may be in doubt about and all be assured of the proper advice and help.

Mr. Bernay may be consulted daily (except Sunday) from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Consultations $1.00 and $2.00 Everything strictly confidential.

The year book committee, comprising Mrs. W. T. Ramsey, Mrs. Halbert Catterson and Mrs. H. W. Hall, will have the books for the coming year's study printed during vacation. Roll call was responded to with current events. Piano music by Miss Rose Frazee. The meeting previous, no report of which was given, was held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Frazee in Maryville East Fourth street. The program consisted of patriotic numbers, with appropriate piano numbers by Miss Frazee and Mrs. Claude Roelofson of Barnard. The guests of the club were Mrs. Claude Roelofson of Barnard, Mrs. J. C. Doran of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Ono Shanks and Mrs. A. W. Frazee.

"Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree."

Miss Hattie Mae Taylor, daughter of President and Mrs. H. K. Taylor of the State Normal, entertained the Hum Drum club, of which she is a member, and a few other friends with a dinner Saturday evening. A three-course dinner was served from a beautifully laid table under the great chestnut tree on the lawn of the Normal residence. The hostess was assisted by her sisters, Mrs. Victor I. Moore and Miss Emma Lee Taylor. After dinner Miss Hattie Mae took her guests to the picture show. Her guests were Miss Carrie Margaret Baker, Miss Mildred Robinson, Misses Geneva and Marjorie Wilfley, Miss Martha Koch, Miss Ruby Curnutt, Miss Ora Barmann, Miss Frances Keeler, Miss Ruth Reuillard, Miss Blanche Shipps, Miss Vera Tilson, Miss Eleanor Smith and Miss Glen Hotchkiss of the Hum Drum club, and Miss Dorothy Deerwester of Bellingham, Wash., the guest of Mrs. James B. WINTON SIX

The 1913 Winton Six

That the 48 H. P. Winton Six is a standard product is evidenced in the Winton Company's announcement that it is to be continued for 1913 without a single radical change. This model was first marketed in June, 1907, at which time the Winton Company became the world's first maker of sixes exclusively. From year to year details have been perfected, and in 1911 the wheel base was lengthened, but at no time since its introduction, five years ago, has this car required radical correction in its essential elements. Probably no other high-grade car has a similar record.

For 1913 the keynote is "restful riding." The Winton Company is not satisfied to produce simply a comfortable car, but goes beyond mere comfort to secure restful results. Every detail of springs and spring suspensions, of seating facilities and contours, of cushions and upholstery has been exhaustively studied and planned, and carefully worked out. The result is a happy surprise, beyond the expectations of motorists accustomed to that worn-out feeling usually following a long or rough drive.

Associated with this new excellence of enjoyment for users is a spacious body of tastefully beautiful design—a design as trim and appealing as the lines of a graceful yacht. This design is free from every evidence of striving for effect, and lends itself becomingly to the 130-inch wheel base of the chassis. Operating levers and door handles are inside. A new type of glass front, with ventilators in the base, is equipped on specification.

The Winton self-cranking motor is now in its sixth year. Compressed air, supplied by the motor, puts the pistons into motion before the spark takes place. Accordingly, shocks resulting from "starting on the spark" and from the use of priming types of self-starters are avoided in the Winton Six.

Other features include Winton-Stromberg carburetor, Bosh or Eismann magneto, with battery for starting, ball-bearing multiple-disc clutch and four-speed selective transmission, three-quarter eliptical rear spring, demountable rims, 36x4 1-2 inch tires all around, and electric dash and tail lights with lighting battery.

The price remains unchanged at $3.000.

In evidence of the endurance and stability of the Winton Six, the Winton Company points to its sworn repair expense record of 22.8 cents per 1000 miles, a record made by stock cars in the service of individual owners, covering a total travel of 744,000 miles.

Gaynor got one in the eight, ninth and 22d ballots.

James got one in the eight and three each in the 20th and 25th ballots.

Foss got 45 in the 23rd and 43 each in the 24th, 25th and 26th ballots.

Baltimore, July 1:—The Democratic national convention is in a tight deadlock. When it adjourned at 11 o'clock Saturday night, 26 ballots had been taken and none of the candidates was within hailing distance of the nomination.

It is generally conceded that Champ Clark, after attaining on several ballots more than a majority of the delegates, is no longer a probable nominee. It was a bad day for the speaker. His vote dwindled with every ballot until on the 26th ballot he had only 23 more votes than he had on the first ballot.

That Clark's managers realize his chances are poor has been significantly indicated. The desperate fight to clamp the unit rule down on delegations in which a growing minority has shown a purpose to leave Clark, and Senator Stone's proposition to eliminate the low candidate on every third ballot, shows that the speaker's strait is narrow.

Rumors of Dissension.

Clark managers sent a hurry call to the speaker in Washington. He reached Baltimore late at night and conferred with his leaders. The speaker declined to make public his plans while here. There are rumors of dissension in the Clark camp.

Woodrow Wilson, recognized now as a real progressive has gained steadily. Starting with 324 votes he now has 407.

Disputes in several delegations and the consequent roll calls have shown an underlying tendency to Wilson in delegations where expression for the New Jersey governor is throttled by the unit rule.

Just two facts stick out beyond the dominant fact of a tight deadlock; the gradual collapse of the Clark forces and the rising sentiment for Woodrow Wilson.

On the 20th ballot Kansas broke with its 20 votes from Clark to Wilson, causing the determined and hard fighting progressives to take heart anew.

After the poor Clark showing on the 21st ballot the Clark managers sent ex-Gov. Francis to the platform to move for an adjournment until 9 o'clock. A roll call was taken and the motion to adjourn was defeated, 499 to 527.

Clark Men Desperate.

The Clark men at this point were desperate. They were beset by desertions and rumors of desertions. The state chairman, J. B. Shannon, and ex-Gov. Francis had been working all afternoon to get the 29 Harmon votes in Ohio for Clark. Mr. Francis got the Ohio governor on the long distance telephone and got his release of the delegates. It came at an opportune time, for on the same ballot, Massachusetts, which had been giving 33 votes to Clark, transferred them to Gov. Foss. The Ohio votes came to Clark, thus covering up the hole made by the Massachusetts loss.

The balloting was tedious and lacking in excitement. Roll calls and disputes in delegations were frequent, but the results all had the same trend a steady, gradual increase of the Wilson vote.

The confusion in the hall during the voting on the recess motion was such that the clerks became badly mixed up on their figures and it variously was claimed that a recess had been ordered and defeated until Chairman James ordered a recasting of the vote.

The anti-Clark men were jubilant when they found they had defeated the Francis motion to take a recess.

Too Serious for Joking.

When the roll started on the 24th ballot the delegates had settled down for a long hot grind and there was comparatively no noise or confusion in the hall. All cheering, joking and horseplay had been eliminated.

The convention had become a decidedly serious matter and the condition compelled better order than the chairman's gavel.

Slight shifts of the delegates in the early part of the 24th roll call got no recognition from even the most partisan of the delegations and it was not until Wilson took another from Clark's Ohio total and added it to his own, making the vote in that state Clark 25½ Wilson 22½, that anything like a cheer came from the Wilson supporters. Then Oregon and Tennessee took one each from their Clark columns and placed it to the credit of the Jerseyite.

The announcement of the total vote for the 24th ballot showed that Wilson's score, after a long, arduous climb, finally had topped the 400-mark.

Stone Makes Proposition.

Senator Stone of Missouri took the stand to ask unanimous consent to an agreement that after two additional ballots, on the third ballot, the candidate receiving the smallest vote on that vote be dropped from the ballot and on the next ballot the candidate receiving the smallest number of votes and so on.

Representative Burleson of Texas objected vigorously.

Chairman James announced the objection to the agreement and the roll was directed called for the 25th vote.

After having stood 18 for Wilson and 6 for Underwood for several ballots, the North Carolinans switched to a solid vote for Wilson on this vote.

Maryland Weakened

When Maryland, which had been passed, was reached at the end of the 26th roll call, a poll of the delegation was demanded. When the roll was called the second delegate, Joshua W. Mills, answering to his name, shouted: "Woodrow Wilson."

Immediately the convention was in an uproar. Mills represented only half a vote, but it was the signal for the Wilson adherents for a demonstration.

When the demonstration had continued five minutes the "We want Wilson" banner was hoisted by several men.

Soon the aisles were choked with a mass of excited delegates.

The uproar became pandemonium. The Foss crowd added their quota to the din.

Eager to Adjourn.

The New Jersey and the Missouri delegates, seated directly across the center aisle from each other, just in front of the platform, began a wordy quarrel. The poll was frequently interrupted by disorder. It became so difficult to keep the delegates and spectators quiet that extra policemen were stationed about three feet apart in all the aisles. The poll showed Wilson 2½; Clark 12; absent 1½.

Immediately after the announcement of the 26th vote Representative A. M. Palmer of Pennsylvania said the delegates had reached the limit of physical endurance, that it was apparent no agreement could be reached before midnight and that it was not desirable that the convention work on Sunday.

"By agreement of the representatives of all of the candidates now before this convention I move that we adjourn until Monday."

Before the motion could be put delegates and spectators began to leave the hall.

David R. Francis of Missouri ,for the Clark forces, seconded the motion and the convention adjourned at 11:07 o'clock.

CONVENTION OF PROGRESSIVES

Call for County Meeting Drew Great Crowd to Winona—No Ticket Nominated.

Winona, Kan., July 1.—The call for a county convention to form a new Progressive party in Logan county, resulted in the biggest political meeting here ever witnessed in the county. The convention adopted a resolution affirming a belief in the principles championed by Roosevelt and Bryan.

The spirit of the meeting was practically unanimous in favor of an independent movement, but no ticket was nominated. A platform declaring in favor of the Progressive policies was adopted.

Rebels Get no Quarter.

The City of Mexico, July 1.—President Madero has refused again to negotiate with Orozco over terms of surrender. The rebel leader had asked by telegraph several days ago what consideration his men might expect at the hands of the authorities if they agreed to lay down their arms.

Few Took Him Seriously.

Baltimore, July 1.—The convention campaign of the Underwood delegates has been a surprise. Four days ago the candidacy of the Alabama congressman was taken seriously only by the delegates pledged to him.

Records Are Broken.

Baltimore, July 1.—Two records are already broken. Not in 50 years has a candidate in a Democratic convention received a majority of the votes without being the nominee. Nor have so many ballots been cast in vain.

Says Hanford Was Drunk.

Seattle, July 1—United States Judge Cornelius H. Hanford's personal habits were inquired into by the house judiciary sub-committee and two witnesses testified they had seen the judge under the influence of liquor.

BRYAN AND CLARK IN OPEN WARFARE

Fight Will Probably be Carried to Floor of Convention.

BOTH SIDES ISSUE STATEMENTS

Missourian Insists Nebraskan Must Prove His Assertions or Make Retraction—Stone Ready to Help Hold Deadlock.

Baltimore, July 1.—There is no longer any pretense about the war between Clark and Bryan. It is in the open and with unkind adjectives working overtime.

Many are predicting that it may be carried to the floor of the convention. This could be done easily by the speaker's floor managers insisting upon reading, as a matter of personal privilege, Clark's reply to Bryan.

If that is done it will make the stormy sessions of last week appear, in comparison, as peaceful as a gathering of the ladies' aid society. For Mr. Bryan will insist upon defending his statement.

Champ Clark's reply to Bryan's charges that the speaker had formed an alliance with Tammany was a statement that the Nebraskan must either prove his allegations or make a retraction.

Clark's Statement.

Mr. Clark came to Baltimore on a late train and went into conference at once with Fred T. Dubois, his campaign manager and others of his leaders. After the conference Mr. Clark made a public statement saying in part:

"In the national convention an outrageous aspersion was cast upon me and through me upon the Democratic party, by one who of all men ought to be the last to besmudge or betray his friends or his party. I ask no undue consideration from any man, be he friend or foe, but with William J. Bryan and his charge made in the convention the issue is proof or retraction. I shall expect him to meet that issue."

In a long statement, the second he has made, Mr. Bryan suggested that the convention compromise on Senator Kern of Indiana, Senator O'Gorman of New York, Senator Rayner of Maryland, Senator Culbertson of Texas or Senator James of Texas.

Bryan Replies.

Mr. Bryan replied to Speaker Champ Clark's demand that the Nebraskan prove or retract the general charge made in convention that the Clark forces had allied themselves with the so-called privileged classes. In his statement Mr. Bryan said:

"I have received notice by publication only. The only criticism I have made against Mr. Clark is not that he has acted wrongfully, but that he has failed to act

"But the activity of Mr. Clark's managers is as objectionable as his own inactivity. They have been in constant co-operation with the reactionaries. If Mr. Clark did not authorize them to act, he has, so far as I know, failed to rebuke them for acting. I take it for granted that he does not object to the action of his managers in soliciting, or at least, in accepting without protest, the support of the 90 wax figures which Mr. Murphy, under the unit rule, uses to carry out the will of the predatory interest."

Stone Pledges Help.

Senator Stone of Missouri sent to Speaker Clark the pledge of many Clark delegations to stand by the Missourian, making a lasting deadlock. In reply to this Mr. Clark wrote to Senator Stone:

"Replying to the communication of my supporters forwarded to me by you, I beg to say that, in ordinary circumstances, I would be the last to encourage any movement which might tend to create a deadlock in a Democratic national convention and thereby, perhaps imperil the standing of our party in the estimation of the country.

"If a majority of the delegates had not declared their preference for me as their candidate, I could not entertain your proposal. The fact, however, that they have done so, on eight successive ballots, creates an exceptional condition which surely merits careful and conscientious consideration."

Mr. Clark then quotes at length from the statement which Mr. Bryan read in the convention and continues:

"As speaker of the house of representatives, as a lifelong Democrat, proud of my party, as an American man, I pronounce Mr. Bryan's implied accusations both false and infamous."

The speaker went back to Washington early in the morning, but has been in touch by telephone all day with his managers here.

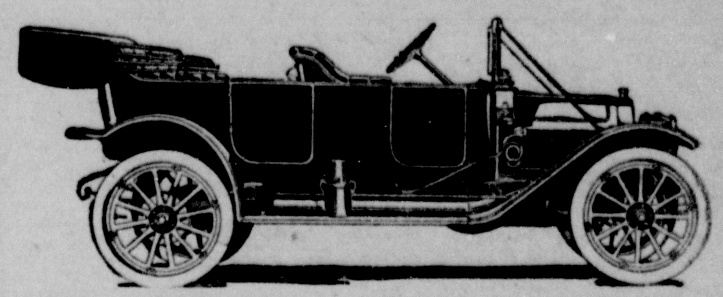
Seaton Heirs Must Pay.

Topeka, July 1.—The heirs of the late John Seaton, iron worker and legislator of Atchison, must pay $17,953 to the state of Kansas in inheritance taxes. The state tax commission completed the tabulation of the inventory of the estate and the shares of the heirs and the tax on each share. The estate is valued at $711,204 and was given entirely to the widow, two sons, two daughters and a grandchild.

Car Load of

E. M. F. Autos

Arrived Tuesday, June 25th. Be sure and get one.



The Studebaker E. M. F. "30" has a tremendous price advantage.

No other car, offering as much value, approaches its price.

Think for a moment what you get when you buy a Studebaker E. M. F. "30."

It is a real car, modern throughout in design and construction, large enough, and so powerful that you will never find road conditions in which your Studebaker E. M. F. "30" ann ot spin its wheels.

The motor is a marvel, very speedy, quick to pick up, flexible, the kind of a motor a driver grows to like and have full confidence in.

The Studebaker E. M. F. "30" transmission system is of the standard three speed type, any car speed you wish up to 55 miles an hour. The rear axle is remarkably well designed and built, giving the best of service.

Every Studebaker E. M. F. "30" body gets 17 coats of paint and varnish, which are properly rubbed and aged. If you take care of your car, your Studebaker body will equal any automobile body on the market

These are some obvious points which show the car's value.

But the deeper you go into the design and manufacture of the Studebaker E. M. F. "30" the better you will like it. We watch every detail.

Every Studebaker E. M. F. "30" is built not only for the first mile but for the 100,000th mile. In those qualities which make for endurance and lasting satisfaction, the Studebaker E. M. F. "30" is incomparably first. Why? Because it is Studebaker-built, and Studebaker always builds that way.

The Proof That Maryville Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Miss Harriett McClurg, 405 East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I gave a public statement in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in September, 1908. Since then I have had occasional attacks of kidney complaint and I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills successfully at such times. I recommend them whenever an opportunity is given me. I was troubled with pain and weakness in my back and hips and could hardly get about. Doan's Kidney Pills corrected these troubles immediately, and after using them I felt better in every way."

Visiting His Brother Here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Miller of Table Grove, Ill., arrived in Maryville Thursday night to visit his brother, L. C. Miller, and family of this city. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Linville were visitors at the Miller home, Mrs. Linville being a sister of Mr. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will leave Monday evening for their home.

Warning to Automobile Owners, Motorcycles, and Drivers.

You are hereby notified that on June 7th, 1912, there was passed by the board of aldermen of the city of Maryville an ordinance providing the following:

(1.) Every motor vehicle operated within said city must be equipped with brakes, suitable bell, horn or other device for signaling, and shall during the period of one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, display at least two lighted lamps on the front and one red light from the rear of such vehicle. The front lights to be visible at least two hundred feet in the direction such vehicle is going.

(2.) That no person shall run such vehicle at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour in the business portion of the city, nor at a greater rate of speed than ten miles in all other portions thereof, and when turning a corner of intersecting highways, or when traversing a curve or corner in the highway or street, where the view is obstructed, the speed of such vehicle shall not be greater than six miles per hour.

(3.) No person shall use any freak horn or other unusual freakish sounding device on such vehicle, nor shall any person operating such vehicle use the device commonly called the "cut out valve" on such vehicle.

(4.) Certain provisions for the operating of such vehicles on the streets and to regulate the same according to the rules of the roads as set out in the state laws upon that subject.

You are further notified that the above provisions may be seen at the office of the city clerk and to acquaint yourselves with the same. You are also notified that the above provisions of said ordinance will be strictly enforced from and after the date of this notice.

Paste this in your hat and don't throw your hat in the ring.

A. S. ROBEY, Mayor.

NEW PLATFORM IS COMPLETED

Will be Presented to Convention After Nominations Are Closed.

BRISTLES WITH PROGRESSIVISM

Document Represents 48 Hours of Continuous Work by Committee and is Lengthy—Many Subjects Covered.

Baltimore, June —Bristling with "progressivism," the platform on which the Democratic party will stand was completed by the committee on resolutions and awaits only the approval of the presidential nominee to be presented to the convention.

The document is the result of 48 hours of work by a committee. It is almost entirely new, although the recommendations of New York were followed in many particulars.

From first to last the resolutions committee's deliberations were characterized by the utmost harmony.

Demanded Progressive Policies.

The unanimous demand was for pronounced declarations in favor of "progressive" policies all along the line and the only differences arose over the best method of expressing this tendency. The result is a platform of generally advanced views, although many of them are less radical than the party declarations of other years.

The document covers every subject of importance which has been the subject of party discussion in four years.

Members of the committee express general satisfaction with the planks and William J. Bryan, who took an active part in framing them, predicted that it would arouse the disapproval of less than a dozen members of the convention.

Under a new rule the platform will not be presented to the convention until after the nomination of the candidates.

A few of its features are as follows:

Tariff for Revenue Only.

Declares for a tariff for revenue only.

Favors immediate downward revision of present duties especially upon necessaries of life. Also favors gradual reduction so as not to interfere with or destroy legitimate industries.

Condemns Republican party "for failure to redeem its promises of 1908 for downward revision."

Takes issue with the Republican platform as to the high cost of living, contending it is largely due to high tariff laws.

Favors vigorous enforcement of the criminal features of the anti-trust law. Demands such additional legislation as may be necessary to crush private monopoly. Favors prohibition of holding companies, interlocking directors, stocks watering, etc.

Concert Will Be on Wednesday.

On account of Thursday being the Fourth, the band will give their weekly concert on Wednesday night. The band is to play Thursday at the celebration at Burlington Junction.

Toll of the Icebergs.

The list of vessels battered or sunk by icebergs is a long one, and it is well to recall it at a time when all the world is thinking of the Titanic. Thus, to take an example or so at haphazard, in the spring of 1890 four steamers of the England-America route utterly vanished, and in 1899 ten steamers disappeared.

In 1908 the Mongolian was imprisoned for two days in the ice, but escaped; in 1909 the Lake Champlain, the Regulus, the Bonavista, and the Montrose were so battered by the floating ice, that each escaped calamity by a very narrow margin, while none can tell how many fishing smacks are yearly dashed to pieces by these towering, glassy crags.

Women Are Fine Riders.

At the Devon horse show in Philadelphia recently the women riders outclassed the men. They were not professional women riders either, but society girls. They rode like veterans, and mounted on their dashing steeds resented a pretty sight. It was expected that some of the many women competing would drop out, but such was not the case and none were disqualified.

Another Form of Recall.

"Father, what do you think of the recall?"

"Well, my dear, I hardly know. Some people think it is dangerous. But why do you ask?"

"I sent Freddy away last night, and now I'm sorry."

400 KILLED IN CANADIAN STORM

Tornado Hit Regina, Saskatchewan, Causing $10,000,000 Damage.

LEFT 600 FAMILIES HOMELESS

Terrific Wind Crumbled Great Grain Elevators and Business Houses —In Five Blocks 300 Homes Were Destroyed.

Winnipeg, July 1.—Four hundred persons at least are believed to have been killed, and property worth $10,000,000 was destroyed by a tornado, which after a thunderstorm and high wind struck Regina, Saskatchewan, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The local telephone office was wrecked and it is feared that 15 girls employed there were killed.

All telephone and telegraph wires, with the exception of one telegraph wire, are down.

A special train left Winnipeg shortly after 9 o'clock with doctors, nurses and telegraph and telephone repairmen.

New Parliament Building Damaged.

The tornado first struck the new parliament building, just completed at a cost of $2,000,000. The building is of steel and concrete, and while it still stands, it is badly shaken. It then swept northward, mowing a swath six blocks in width through the most fashionable residence district, transforming it into a mass of wreckage. Along one street 300 houses were destroyed and many persons killed. Automobiles filled with people were hurled high in the air and deposited blocks away.

At Eleventh street wholesale warehouses, banking institutions and retail stores, were sent into heaps of ruins.

City in Darkness.

Six big grain elevators were toppled over like tenpins, the timbers being piled in heaps on the track.

All electric lights and power wires were rendered useless and the city is in darkness. All conveyances were pressed into service to convey the dead to the morgues and the injured to the hospitals.

The magnitude of the calamity which Regina had suffered, while growing in realization as the rescue work proceeded, can not yet be fully estimated.

Crowds of volunteers all over the city were assisting in the work of searching the wreckage and for hours hardly a minute went by that a human body or mangled form of some living victim was not uncovered.

Caught Many on Lake.

The sweep of the storm, the worst in the history of the Canadian Northwest, was over a city which only a short time before had completed the work of decking itself in gala attire for the celebration of Dominion day.

Numbers of persons were on the waters of the lake, when the storm broke; five are known to have been drowned. The whole north side of the city was laid low by the storm. Six hundred families are homeless.

GOT FORGER AFTER LONG CHASE

E. R. Morton Led Kansas Officers all Over the West Since 1909— Found at Hiawatha.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 1.—After being on the trail of E. R. Morton, a forger, since 1909, Sheriff E. O. McCain of Jefferson county has just arrived with him. It is charged that Morton forged a check on the Exchange bank at Nortonville and passed it on a merchant of that place. Morton went to Hiawatha to visit relatives and Sheriff McCain found him there after he had tracked him to Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and other Western cities.

Killed by a Hay Rake.

Hunnewell, Kan., July 1.—John Harding, eight-year-old son of a farmer, was killed while raking alfalfa with a team supposed to be gentle. A rake tooth caught in a wire fence, breaking the tongue, and the horses ran, dragging the boy 80 yards. A rake tooth penetrated his skull.

Found Black River Pearl.

Imboden, Ark., July 1.—Black river gave up another fine pearl when Henry Norris of Smithville, mail carrier, laid off a few days and went pearling. He found an extra quality gem which he sold for $300 and which in turn was sold by the dealer for $400.

Harvested on Sunday.

Salina, Kan., July 1.—Because of the ripened condition of the wheat crop and the necessity of cutting the second crop of alfalfa and with the corn fields ready for the cultivator, 200 harvesters were run in the wheat fields of this county on Sunday.

Kansas Helped Wilson.

Baltimore, July 1.—When Kansas changed its vote from 20 for Clark for Wilson in the 20th ballot, it made a noticeable impression upon the convention and Wilson followers had a decided demonstration.

Dedicated Swedish Church.

Scandia, Kan., July 1.—The Swedish Lutherans of Scandia dedicated a new $3,000 church. The building is modernly equipped and has been in course of erection for nearly a year.

LIKE A BOMB SHELL

MR. BRYAN'S RESOLUTION DISTURBED CONVENTION PEACE.

IT TOOK THEIR BREATH

So Suddenly Was the Issue Precipitated by Nebraskan That It Created Consternation.

(By W. C. VAN CLEVE.)

Baltimore, Md., June 28,—In the midst of happiness and tranquility last night, William J. Bryan dropped a match into a keg of powder, and the explosion was like unto the sudden outpouring of a latent volcano into a valley of quiet and contentment. After three days of maneuvering and skirmishing, intermingled with fierce flashes of battle, the hosts went into the convention tonight feeling that the danger line had been passed.

Reports had been received from the committee on credentials and all contests had been settled, the platform was passed until after the nomination of candidates and the report of the committee on permanent organization had been received and unanimously adopted. Ollie James had made his address and the rules of the convention had been adopted making the next thing in order the placing of candidates in nomination. It was believed that all preliminary flashes were over, and that the final struggle among the candidates was at hand.

Both delegates and visitors had come to the hall with peace in their hearts and joy in their souls. A tremendous crowd had worked its way into the hall, more than twenty thousand, it was said. Many had come hours before in order to get choice seats. As the time for the resumption of business drew near the good natured masses stopped their chatter among themselves to cheer the entrance of prominent men whom they recognized. Mr. Bryan appeared and a great cheer went up. He sat down in the speaker's stand, gave the big palm leaf fan a few vigorous jerks and arose to confer with some friend. The crowd cheered, he stepped over and shook hands with Mrs. Taft, who occupied a prominent place in the gallery and had been an interested spectator during the day, and the crowd cheered some more.

The chairman rapped for order, a minister offered an eloquent prayer in a clear, strong voice and the crowd strained its ear for the next announcement. All were feeling good. Then Mr. Bryan arose and walked quickly to the railing about the speaker's stand. His face suddenly took on a determined look, his eyes flashed and he asked unanimous consent to present a resolution out of order for immediate consideration. Mr. Bryan had not appeared at the hall since the first day's skirmish and instinct told the crowd to look out. An ominous, expectant silence settled over the eager thousands, and the reading of the resolution was demanded. It proposed that the nomination of any candidate "who is the representative of or under any obligation to J. Pierpont Morgan, Thomas F. Ryan, August Belmont or any other member of the privilege hunting and favor seeking class" would not be acceptable, and it further demanded the withdrawal from the convention of any delegates "constituting or representing any of the above interests."

The resolution took the breath of the assembled hosts for a moment. Its revolutionary nature and the complications that might ensue were quickly realized by the friends of the various candidates, and a storm broke that turned the tranquility into pandemonium. All the former exciting scenes of this convention were as a prayer meeting as compared to the situation so suddenly precipitated. Unanimous consent for the consideration of the resolution was denied, and the Nebraskan asked for a vote. He made an impassioned plea for its adoption. A half dozen Virginians were on their feet protesting that it proposed an invasion of the rights of the states to name their own representatives in a national convention. Points of order that the convention had no right to consider such a proposition after the delegates had been regularly seated in the convention were made. Chairman James ruled that the convention had the right to do anything that it wanted to do. So the fight raged.

Believing that the Nebraskan had made a mistake and had gone too far, his close friends and some of Governor Wilson's leaders crowded excitedly about Mr. Bryan and pleaded with him. His jaws remained firmly set and his smile and apparent coolness had not deserted him. Several men rushed to the platform to answer him and they were wildly cheered. Senator Vardeman, friendly to Mr. Bryan, declared it was time for "reason and common sense to rule." Ex-Governor McCorkle of West Virginia declared it a "senseless and foolish resolution." Congressman Flood of Virginia, in a keen, penetrating voice that carried to the uttermost parts of the hall declared that Virginia had as honest Democrats as Mr. Bryan ever dared to be, and that they could take care of their internal affairs, and that they resented the interference of "the only man who wishes to destroy the Democratic party." This bold declaration brought a wild volley of cheers and hisses. Mr. Bryan then proposed that if the Virginia and New York delegates would make the request he would withdraw the last part of the resolution demanding that certain delegates be excluded from the convention. This infuriated some of the delegates from both states, and they promptly announced that they would ask nothing of him and he could withdraw it himself if he wanted to. They preferred to vote on it as it stood.

The whole convention was in an uproar. Mr. Bryan made another short address and was derided, jeered and hissed along with cheers. He had lost control of the crowd, evidently a new experience, and many refused to listen. For the first time he looked worried and his smile vanished. While the uproar continued he withdrew the objectionable paragraph on the ground that he did not want to interject the question of state authority, and the resolution with teeth drawn went to a vote. There was wild confusion and a long time was required. The states began to vote "no," but on second thought and after a hasty conference of the leaders they changed their votes and the proposition was carried almost unanimously. The New York delegation, including Mr. Belmont voted "aye," and the Virginia delegation, including Ryan, did likewise. They declared that the Democratic party had never been allied with the interests to which Mr. Bryan objected and that no convention had ever upheld them, and there was no objection to the converse of the proposition.

* * *

All this followed a day session of sharp interchange. Mr. Bryan had kept his own counsel except for his immediate advisory cabinet, and the full purpose of his resolution at the particular time is only a matter of conjecture. The report from the committee on resolutions and platform had been, at his request, laid over until after the nomination of a presidential candidate. The first opinion, however, is that he made a grave mistake, seriously injured Wilson's chances and incidentally put himself further out of the running.

* * *

After quiet was restored nominating speeches were begun. They were closed and the first ballot was taken at 4 o'clock this morning. Many complications have been injected into the situation, but Clark stock still rules the favorite, and it is still confidently believed that his nomination can be accomplished. Harmon is dead, Wilson is believed impossible. The demonstration at the close of Senator Reed's nominating speech was one of the greatest scenes ever enacted in a convention. Thousands of small flags were in the air, hats were waved, a deafening roar of voices continued for one hour and five minutes. Toy balloons on which Clark's name had been pasted were thrown in the air, flags, banners, pictures, state standards were grabbed up and carried in an endless procession. State after state followed. Men mounted into the officers' stand and yelled and waved their banners. Speaker Clark's daughter was grabbed up by strong men, draped in the folds of a great American flag and was carried on their shoulders. One man moved that Clark be declared the nominee by acclamation. He put the vote himself and declared it carried. It was one of the greatest demonstrations ever accorded a candidate, and was renewed time and again as men arose from the various states to second his nomination.

The Wilson demonstration was also a great one. In addition to other features, they pushed a band past the doorkeepers from the outside and followed it about the hall. Baltimore is getting a run for its money. This convention is no tame affair.

MARSHAL OF SHERIDAN ATTACKED ON WAY FROM CHURCH

HIS WIFE WAS WITH HIM

A Warrant Sworn Out for Arrest of Assailant, Who It is Rumored Has Left Neighborhood.

G. A. Jones, city marshal of Sheridan, was attacked Sunday afternoon while walking down the road at Gaynor by Glenn Barton, who knocked two teeth out and bruised his face. Jones was unconscious for a few hours and was taken at once to his home at Sheridan. Jones and his wife had been to Gaynor to attend the basket dinner given by the Christian church of that place.

The trouble, it is said, was over Jones arresting Barton at Sheridan a few weeks ago for fast driving in an automobile.

Mr. Jones, accompanied by Charles Evans of Parnell and Nelson Young and Ira Cline of Sheridan, were in the city Monday afternoon and Jones had a warrant issued for the arrest of Barton for common assault. It is rumored that Barton, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton, living one mile east of Gaynor, has left the neighborhood. Another party in Maryville Monday from Gaynor was William Killam, E. V. Husband, Lou Nigh, W. E. Sparks, Grover Dinsmore and J. C. Archer, who returned from a visit at Gaynor.

NO STORY HOUR

At the Library Tuesday—Miss Albert Not Feeling Well.

Maryville's little folks, who have been hearing the stories at the city library every Tuesday morning, will have to be disappointed this week, because the story teller, Miss Ada Albert, is not feeling able for her duty. The hot weather of the past few days is responsible for her indisposition, and although she is not down sick she does not feel that she could tell the stories well enough Tuesday morning. She promises to be at her best next week, however, and will have some most delightful stories for the boys and girls who come to hear her.

BROUGHT BACK FLETCHER WRAY

Had Been in Asylum at St. Joseph Since 1895—Will Probably be Sent to Poor Farm.

Fletcher Wray, who formerly lived northeast of the city, and who has been a private patient at the St. Joseph asylum, was brought to Maryville Saturday by Sheriff Tilson. Wray was sent Monday to the poor farm by the county court as he is not violently insane. He was brought here as there were no funds to pay for his keeping down at the asylum.

Saw Granddaughter Graduate.

Mrs. J. W. Houghtaling of Bolckow returned home Friday evening from a two days' visit in Maryville with Rev. and Mrs. C. H. John. She came to attend the commencement exercises of the Maryville Business college, her granddaughter, Miss Beulah McCoppin, being a member of the class and winning the gold medal and purse of money.

Papa Said "Yes."

Theodose Weisenberger and Zada E. Blacketer of Maryville, who were refused a marriage license in Kansas City, Kan., Friday afternoon because the would-be bridegroom is but 19 years old and did not have the written consent of his father, were granted a license Saturday, according to the Kansas City Journal. The bride is 20 years old.

Guests From St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hax Smith of St. Joseph were guests over Sunday of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend. Miss Maida Michau of St. Joseph, who arrived Saturday night, is a guest at the Townsend home for this week.

Will Spend Summer With Sister.

Misses Louise and Marie McCann of Clyde were Maryville visitors Saturday. Miss Marie went to Creston, Ia., to spend the remainder of the summer with her sister, Mrs. N. F. Weber.

Was in the City.

Orel R. Geyer, formerly of Maryville, but with the Des Moines Register-Leader, was in the city Sunday.

WILSON GOING UP

THIRTIETH BALLOT PUTS NEW JERSEY MAN IN LEAD.

CAN HE BREAK DEADLOCK?

As Ballot After Ballot Comes in a Steady Gain is Shown for Wilson and Loss for Clark.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—The convention met this morning at 11:05. Another conference of leaders held this morning with no result and no prospects for nomination today. W. J. Bryan enters hall after invocation and is received with demonstration.

As they were taking the twenty-seventh ballot, or the first one today, the New York vote was challenged and poll ordered. Stanchfield, former candidate for governor of that state, secures consent to explain his vote. He takes stand and attacks Bryan for his attack on New York delegation, and calls Bryan money hunting, favor hunting Marplot from Nebraska. He says no candidate banded with Bryan is going to carry New York by half a million. He concluded by saying that Bryan should be expelled from the convention because of his writing for pay in favor of Roosevelt, and that Bryan never intended to support the candidate nominated by the convention unless the candidate was Bryan. Stanchfield closed his speech by voting for Wilson. The New York delegation on this ballot stood 2 for Underwood, 9 for Wilson and 79 for Clark, but under the unit rule of that state Clark received the ninety delegates. Senator O'Gorman of New York also voted for Wilson.

Twenty-Seventh Ballot.

Clark 469, Wilson 406½, Underwood 112, Foss 38, Marshall 30, Harmon 29, Bryan 1, absent 21½.

Twenty-Eighth Ballot.

On this ballot the Indiana delegation, 30 in number, switched from Governor Marshall and gave Kern 1 and Wilson 29. The result of this ballot stood as follows: Clark 468½, Wilson 447½, Underwood 112½, Foss 38, Harmon 29, Kern 1 and Bryan 1.

Twenty-Ninth Ballot.

Clark 468½, Wilson 438, Underwood 112, Foss 38, Harmon 29, Kern 4.

Thirtieth Ballot.

Clark 455, Wilson 460, Harmon 19, Underwood 121½, Kern 2, Foss 30.

Thirty-First Ballot.

Clark 446½, Wilson 475½, Harmon 17, Underwood 114, Kern 2, Foss 30.

Thirty-Second Ballot.

Clark 445, Wilson 478½, Underwood 119½, Harmon 14, Kern 2, Foss 28. This was the last ballot taken up to the time of going to press at 3:30.

ONLY 2.16 INCHES OF RAIN.

That Was the Record for June—Warmest Day Was Last Thursday, When Mercury Went Up to 97.

For the month of June the rainfall, according to Weather Observer J. R. Brink, amounted to 2:16 inches. The warmest day of the month was last Thursday, when the mercury went up to 97 degrees. This was also the hottest day of the summer. The coolest days of the month was on June 17 and 18, when the mercury was down to 63.

Guests at Hartley Home.

Mrs. Daniel Hartley and children of Barnard were guests from Saturday until Monday morning at the home of Mr. Hartley's brother, George W. Hartley of North Market street.

Off on Two Months' visit.

Mrs. G. H. Leech left Monday morning for Loveland, Col., where she will spend two months with her sisters, Mrs. S. E. Broyles and Mrs. George Scane.

Basket Dinner at Clearmont.

A basket dinner was held at Clearmont Sunday by the Christian church of that place in the church grove. Rev. Cole is the pastor of the church.

Mrs. Armstrong Here.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong of Trimble, Mo., arrived in Maryville Friday night on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary Malotte of South Market street.

Visiting in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wiles went to Kansas City Saturday evening to spend a few days with Mr. Wiles' sister, Mrs. Lafayette Rambo.

John Porter of Guilford was a city visitor Monday.

READY FOR CELEBRATION.

All Arrangements Nearly Completed for the Fourth in Maryville.

Nearly all arrangements are completed for the Fourth of July celebration in Maryville. One of the main features of the day will be the barbecue dinner to be served at noon in the court house yard, when two beeves will be used. The beeves will be roasted in vats in the lot west of Robey's garage, and Martin Borrusch and Frank Bolin are in charge of this work.

Another speaker for the celebration will be Dr. H. K. Taylor. B. R. Martin has been secured for a talk. The speakers' stand will be in the southwest corner of the court house yard.

The official program for the day will be announced tomorrow.

SANITY CASE BEFORE COURT.

Jeff Lambert of Barnard Brought to Maryville Saturday—Threatened to Kill His Wife.

Jeff Lambert, who lives south of Barnard, was brought to Maryville Saturday evening by Constable Jim Wyatt and Charles Swartz. Lambert has been mentally off for some time, and told Sheriff Tilson that he was formerly in an asylum in Virginia. Lambert threatened to kill his wife in one of his spells last week. He has been living in the Barnard neighborhood the past four or five years, coming there from Virginia, and has a wife and family of six children. He is 40 years old. His case will come up before the county court probably late Monday.

REACTING IN CLARK'S FAVOR.

Bryan's Fight, Says Harry M. Irwin, is Making Clark's Forces Determined and Loyal.

A telegram received by Frank Owens from Harry Irwin at Baltimore, the message being sent late Sunday night, says:

"Conference held Sunday strong for Clark. Bryan's injustice reacting in Clark's favor. About 500 pledges to stick with Clark forever. Friends determined to fight to finish and looks more encouraging for Monday. Probably will regain majority. Managers think it must be Clark or long deadlock. Can't guess outcome, but our delegates seem determined and loyal."

BACK FROM VACATION TRIP.

Rev. W. J. Parvin Returned Saturday Afternoon After a Month's Visit.

Rev. W. J. Parvin, pastor of the M. E. church, South, returned Saturday afternoon in his automobile from a month's vacation trip at Kansas City. While in that city he had charge of the building of a residence in North Kansas City on some property he owns there. Mrs. Parvin and son, Julian, will remain in Kansas City until the middle of August.

Rev. Parvin occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church, South, both Sunday morning and evening, and was greeted by large audiences.

HAS POSITION WITH BANK.

John Owen Murrin Accepted Place With First National Bank at Atchison, Kan.

John Owen Murrin, who has been attending St. Benedict Business college at Atchison, Kan., the past year, has accepted a position with the First National bank of that city, and commenced his work Monday. John M. Murrin visited his son at Atchison Sunday.

JUNE WAS A GOOD MONTH.

Twenty-Four Marriage Licenses During the Month as Compared With Fourteen Last June.

June was a good month for Recorder J. Arthur Wray. With the granting of a marriage license to Ed Anderson and Miss Anna Clouse, both of Elmo, late Saturday evening, there were twenty-four marriage licenses issued during the month. This is a gain of ten as compared with June, 1911, as there were only fourteen marriage licenses issued then.

Purchased a Cadillac Car.

Charles C. Young of this city purchased Saturday a Cadillac automobile through Arthur S. Robey, who is the local agent.

HELLER APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO COME UP THEN.

LAMBERT WAS NOT INSANE

Testimony of Several Witnesses Was Heard—Court Looking After a Bridge Near Clearmont.

The county court, composed of Judges Thornhill, Blackford and Thompson, met Monday and decided that the Heller dramshop application would be taken up on Wednesday morning. Attorney Ellis G. Cook, representing the "drys," said Monday that the case was purely a point of law, and if the county court finds they have jurisdiction, of course, they will issue the license to Heller, as he has enough qualified signers.

The court on Monday afternoon took up the case of S. L. Lambert of near Barnard, an information being sworn out by Richard Heely that he was of unsound mind. After the court had heard the testimony of several witnesses they decided that the man was of sound mind.

The court left late Monday afternoon for the Toad Hollow neighborhood, near noon to look after a ditch and bridge Clearmont.

In Maryville Next Tuesday and Wednesday

Mr. M. R. Bernay, One of the Most Remarkable of Modern Clairvoyants and the Most Expert Astrologer in the United State.

Office at 201 Buchanan Street, Corner of Fourth, Open From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Prof. Bernay is the Clairvoyant who located J. W. Graham of St. Joseph, a young man, who had been missing two years. Mrs. Graham, the mother, consulted Mr. Bernay, who while in a clairvoyant condition stated that the man was an enlisted sailor on the Battleship Kearsarge and that he would be found there. Telegraphic inquiry confirmed the prediction.

Mr. Julius Daniel of Joplin is now a wealthy mine owner, but 2 years ago was working in a mine at $3.00 a day in that city. By mere accident he met Mr. Bernay, who pointed out an opportunity to him. Mr. Daniel acted upon the advice with the result that, as he writes in a letter of thanks to Mr. Bernay, "It started me on the road to success and in ten months was worth $18,000.00 to me."

Miss F. D. of St. Joseph consulted with Bernay after circumstances had broken up a dear friendsip between her and a prominent young professional man. In two weeks time through the clairvoyant's advice and help the trouble was settled and the friendship renewed with marriage as a near result.

John Emerson, a prosperous farmer living near Springfield, had buried his money in his backyard, having no faith in banks. He died on April 21, 1910, suddenly without having time to tell the family about this. When no money was found, a son consulted with Mr. Bernay and this resulted in the recovery of $4,200.00 and valuable papers.

Without asking a single question of his caller, Bernay reveals every important event in his client's life even to the meaning of them in full, showing them how to attain the success they desire in business, investments, speculation, love, courtship, marriage, divorce, lost or absent friends, lawsuits, fortunes, money affairs, health, wills, deeds or anything they may be in doubt about and all be assured of the proper advice and help.

Mr. Bernay may be consulted daily (except Sunday) from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Consultations $1.00 and $2.00 Everything strictly confidential.

CAN'T CURE CATARRH.

Stomach Dosing, Sprays and Douches Have All Failed.

There is only one way to cure catarrh.

Reach the ray, tender, inflamed membrane that is infested with catarrh germs, and destroy the germs.

You can't reach the nooks and crevices with liquid preparations—there is only one way—breathe the antiseptic germ killing air of Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me) directly over the infested parts.

Hyomei contains no opium, cocaine or other harmful drugs, it is made of Australian eucalyptus, thymol and other Listerian antiseptics. It is guaranteed to end the misery of catarrh, asthma, croup and bronchitis, or money back.

Ask the Orear-Henry Drug company about the Hyomei outfit today. They sel lit for only $1.00 and guarantee it.

The 1913 Winton Six

That the 48 H. P. Winton Six is a standard product is evidenced in the Winton Company's announcement that it is to be continued for 1913 without a single radical change. This model was first marketed in June, 1907, at which time the Winton Company became the world's first maker of sixes exclusively. From year to year details have been perfected, and in 1911 the wheel base was lengthened, but at no time since its introduction, five years ago, has this car required radical correction in its essential elements. Probably no other high-grade car has a similar record.

For 1913 the keynote is "restful riding." The Winton Company is not satisfied to produce simply a comfortable car, but goes beyond mere comfort to secure restful results. Every detail of springs and spring suspensions, of seating facilities and contours, of cushions and upholstery has been exhaustively studied and planned, and carefully worked out. The result is a happy surprise, beyond the expectations of motorists accustomed to that worn-out feeling usually following a long or rough drive.

Associated with this new excellence of enjoyment for users is a spacious body of tastefully beautiful design—a design as trim and appealing as the lines of a graceful yacht. This design is free from every evidence of striving for effect, and lends itself becomingly to the 130-inch wheel base of the chassis. Operating levers and door handles are inside. A new type of glass front, with ventilators in the base, is equipped on specification.

The Winton self-cranking motor is now in its sixth year. Compressed air, supplied by the motor, puts the pistons into motion before the spark takes place. Accordingly, shocks resulting from "starting on the spark" and from the use of priming types of self-starters are avoided in the Winton Six.

Other features include Winton-Stromberg carburetor, Bosh or Eismann magneto, with battery for starting, ball-bearing multiple-disc clutch and four-speed selective transmission, three-quarter eliptical rear spring, demountable rims, 36x4 1-2 inch tires all around, and electric dash and tail lights with lighting battery.

The price remains unchanged at $3.000.

In evidence of the endurance and stability of the Winton Six, the Winton Company points to its sworn repair expense record of 22.8 cents per 1000 miles, a record made by stock cars in the service of individual owners, covering a total travel of 744,000 miles.

James got one in the eight and three each in the 20th and 25th ballots.

Foss got 45 in the 23rd and 43 each in the 24th, 25th and 26th ballots.

Baltimore, July 1.—The Democratic national convention is in a tight deadlock. When it adjourned at 11 o'clock Saturday night, 26 ballots had been taken and none of the candidates was within hailing distance of the nomination.

It is generally conceded that Champ Clark, after attaining on several ballots more than a majority of the delegates, is no longer a probable nominee. It was a bad day for the speaker. His vote dwindled with every ballot until on the 26th ballot he had only 23 more votes than he had on the first ballot.

That Clark's managers realize his chances are poor has been significantly indicated. The desperate fight to clamp the unit rule down on delegations in which a growing minority has shown a purpose to leave Clark, and Senator Stone's proposition to eliminate the low candidate on every third ballot, shows that the speaker's strait is narrow.

Rumors of Dissension.

Clark managers sent a hurry call to the speaker in Washington. He reached Baltimore late at night and conferred with his leaders. The speaker declined to make public his plans while here. There are rumors of dissension in the Clark camp.

Woodrow Wilson, recognized now as a real progressive has gained steadily. Starting with 324 votes he now has 407.

Disputes in several delegations and the consequent roll calls have shown an underlying tendency to Wilson in delegations where expression for the New Jersey governor is throttled by the unit rule.

Just two facts stick out beyond the dominant fact of a tight deadlock; the gradual collapse of the Clark forces and the rising sentiment for Woodrow Wilson.

On the 20th ballot Kansas broke with its 20 votes from Clark to Wilson, causing the determined and hard fighting progressives to take heart anew.

After the poor Clark showing on the 21st ballot the Clark managers sent ex-Gov. Francis to the platform to move for an adjournment until 9 o'clock. A roll call was taken and the motion to adjourn was defeated, 499 to 527.

Clark Men Desperate.

The Clark men at this point were desperate. They were beset by desertions and rumors of desertions. The state chairman, J. B. Shannon, and ex-Gov. Francis had been working all afternoon to get the 29 Harmon votes in Ohio for Clark. Mr. Francis got the Ohio governor on the long distance telephone and got his release of the delegates. It came at an opportune time, for on the same ballot, Massachusetts, which had been giving 33 votes to Clark, transferred them to Gov. Foss. The Ohio votes came to Clark, thus covering up the hole made by the Massachusetts loss.

The balloting was tedious and lacking in excitement. Roll calls and disputes in delegations were frequent, but the results all had the same trend a steady, gradual increase of the Wilson vote.

The confusion in the hall during the voting on the recess motion was such that the clerks became badly mixed up on their figures and it variously was claimed that a recess had been ordered and defeated until Chairman James ordered a recasting of the vote.

The anti-Clark men were jubilant when they found they had defeated the Francis motion to take a recess.

Too Serious for Joking.

When the roll started on the 24th ballot the delegates had settled down for a long hot grind and there was comparatively no noise or confusion in the hall. All cheering, joking and horseplay had been eliminated.

The convention had become a decidedly serious matter and the condition compelled better order than the chairman's gavel.

Slight shifts of the delegates in the early part of the 24th roll call got no recognition from even the most partisan of the delegations and it was not until Wilson took another from Clark's Ohio total and added it to his own, making the vote in that state Clark 25½ Wilson 22½, that anything like a cheer came from the Wilson supporters. Then Oregon and Tennessee took one each from their Clark columns and placed it to the credit of the Jerseyite.

The announcement of the total vote for the 24th ballot showed that Wilson's score, after a long, arduous climb, finally had topped the 400-mark.

Stone Makes Proposition.

Senator Stone of Missouri took the stand to ask unanimous consent to an agreement that after two additional ballots, on the third ballot, the candidate receiving the smallest vote on that vote be dropped from the ballot and on the next ballot the candidate receiving the smallest number of votes and so on.

Representative Burleson of Texas objected vigorously.

Chairman James announced the objection to the agreement and the roll was directed called for the 25th vote.

After having stood 18 for Wilson and 6 for Underwood for several ballots, the North Carolinans switched to a solid vote for Wilson on this vote.

Maryland Weakened

When Maryland, which had been passed, was reached at the end of the 26th roll call, a poll of the delegation was demanded. When the roll was called the second delegate, Joshua W. Mills, answering to his name, shouted: "Woodrow Wilson."

Immediately the convention was in an uproar. Mills represented only half a vote, but it was the signal for the Wilson adherents for a demonstration.

When the demonstration had continued five minutes the "We want Wilson" banner was hoisted by several men.

Soon the aisles were choked with a mass of excited delegates.

The uproar became pandemonium. The Foss crowd added their quota to the din.

Eager to Adjourn.

The New Jersey and the Missouri delegates, seated directly across the center aisle from each other, just in front of the platform, began a wordy quarrel. The poll was frequently interrupted by disorder. It became so difficult to keep the delegates and spectators quiet that extra policemen were stationed about three feet apart in all the aisles. The poll showed Wilson 2½; Clark 12; absent 1½.

Immediately after the announcement of the 26th vote Representative A. M. Palmer of Pennsylvania said the delegates had reached the limit of physical endurance, that it was apparent no agreement could be reached before midnight and that it was not desirable that the convention work on Sunday.

"By agreement of the representatives of all of the candidates now before this convention I move that we adjourn until Monday."

Before the motion could be put delegates and spectators began to leave the hall.

David R. Francis of Missouri ,for the Clark forces, seconded the motion and the convention adjourned at 11:07 o'clock.

CONVENTION OF PROGRESSIVES

Call for County Meeting Drew Great Crowd to Winona—No Ticket Nominated.

Winona, Kan., July 1.—The call for a county convention to form a new Progressive party in Logan county, resulted in the biggest political meeting here ever witnessed in the county. The convention adopted a resolution affirming a belief in the principles championed by Roosevelt and Bryan.

The spirit of the meeting was practically unanimous in favor of an independent movement, but no ticket was nominated. A platform declaring in favor of the Progressive policies was adopted.

Rebels Get no Quarter.

The City of Mexico, July 1.—President Madero has refused again to negotiate with Orozco over terms of surrender. The rebel leader had asked by telegraph several days ago what consideration his men might expect at the hands of the authorities if they agreed to lay down their arms.

Few Took Him Seriously.

Baltimore, July 1.—The convention campaign of the Underwood delegates has been a surprise. Four days ago the candidacy of the Alabama congressman was taken seriously only by the delegates pledged to him.

Records Are Broken.

Baltimore, July 1.—Two records are already broken. Not in 50 years has a candidate in a Democratic convention received a majority of the votes without being the nominee. Nor have so many ballots been cast in vain.

Says Hanford Was Drunk.

Seattle, July 1—United States Judge Cornelius H. Hanford's personal habits were inquired into by the house judiciary sub-committee and two witnesses testified they had seen the judge under the influence of liquor.

BRYAN AND CLARK IN OPEN WARFARE

Fight Will Probably be Carried to Floor of Convention.

BOTH SIDES ISSUE STATEMENTS

Missourian Insists Nebraskan Must Prove His Assertions or Make Retraction—Stone Ready to Help Hold Deadlock.

Baltimore, July 1.—There is no longer any pretense about the war between Clark and Bryan. It is in the open and with unkind adjectives working overtime.

Many are predicting that it may be carried to the floor of the convention. This could be done easily by the speaker's floor managers insisting upon reading, as a matter of personal privilege, Clark's reply to Bryan.

If that is done it will make the stormy sessions of last week appear, in comparison, as peaceful as a gathering of the ladies' aid society. For Mr. Bryan will insist upon defending his statement.

Champ Clark's reply to Bryan's charges that the speaker had formed an alliance with Tammany was a statement that the Nebraskan must either prove his allegations or make a retraction.

Clark's Statement.

Mr. Clark came to Baltimore on a late train and went into conference at once with Fred T. Dubois, his campaign manager and others of his leaders. After the conference Mr. Clark made a public statement saying in part:

"In the national convention an outrageous aspersion was cast upon me and through me upon the Democratic party, by one who of all men ought to be the last to besmudge or betray his friends or his party. I ask no undue consideration from any man, be he friend or foe, but with William J. Bryan and his charge made in the convention the issue is proof or retraction. I shall expect him to meet that issue."

In a long statement, the second he has made, Mr. Bryan suggested that the convention compromise on Senator Kern of Indiana, Senator O'Gorman of New York, Senator Rayner of Maryland, Senator Culbertson of Texas or Senator James of Texas.

Bryan Replies.

Mr. Bryan replied to Speaker Champ Clark's demand that the Nebraskan prove or retract the general charge made in convention that the Clark forces had allied themselves with the so-called privileged classes. In his statement Mr. Bryan said:

"I have received notice by publication only. The only criticism I have made against Mr. Clark is not that he has acted wrongfully, but that he has failed to act.

"But the activity of Mr. Clark's managers is as objectionable as his own inactivity. They have been in constant co-operation with the reactionaries. If Mr. Clark did not authorize them to act, he has, so far as I know, failed to rebuke them for acting. I take it for granted that he does not object to the action of his managers in soliciting, or at least, in accepting without protest, the support of the 90 wax figures which Mr. Murphy, under the unit rule, uses to carry out the will of the predatory interest."

Stone Pledges Help.

Senator Stone of Missouri sent to Speaker Clark the pledge of many Clark delegations to stand by the Missourian, making a lasting deadlock. In reply to this Mr. Clark wrote to Senator Stone:

"Replying to the communication of my supporters forwarded to me by you, I beg to say that, in ordinary circumstances, I would be the last to encourage any movement which might tend to create a deadlock in a Democratic national convention and thereby, perhaps imperil the standing of our party in the estimation of the country.

"If a majority of the delegates had not declared their preference for me as their candidate, I could not entertain your proposal. The fact, however, that they have done so, on eight successive ballots, creates an exceptional condition which surely merits careful and conscientious consideration."

Mr. Clark then quotes at length from the statement which Mr. Bryan read in the convention and continues:

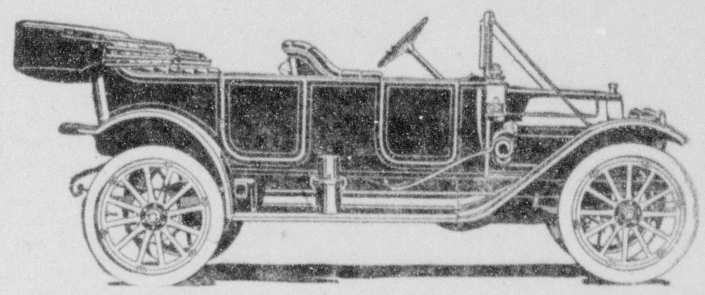
"As speaker of the house of representatives, as a lifelong Democrat, proud of my party, as an American man, I pronounce Mr. Bryan's implied accusations both false and infamous."

The speaker went back to Washington early in the morning, but has been in touch by telephone all day with his managers here.

Seaton Heirs Must Pay.

Topeka, July 1.—The heirs of the late John Seaton, iron worker and legislator of Atchison, must pay $17,953 to the state of Kansas in inheritance taxes. The state tax commission completed the tabulation of the inventory of the estate and the shares of the heirs and the tax on each share. The estate is valued at $711,204 and was given entirely to the widow, two sons, two daughters and a grandchild.

Car Load of
E. M. F. Autos
Arrived Tuesday, June 25th. Be sure and get one.



The Studebaker E. M. F. "30" has a tremendous price advantage.

No other car, offering as much value, approaches its price.

Think for a moment what you get when you buy a Studebaker E. M. F. "30."

It is a real car, modern throughout in design and construction, large enough, and so powerful that you will never find road conditions in which your Studebaker E. M. F. "30" ann ot spin its wheels.

The motor is a marvel, very speedy, quick to pick up, flexible, the kind of a motor a driver grows to like and have full confidence in.

The Studebaker E. M. F. "30" transmission system is of the standard three speed type, any car speed you wish up to 55 miles an hour. The rear axle is remarkably well designed and built, giving the best of service.

Every Studebaker E. M. F. "30" body gets 17 coats of paint and varnish, which are properly rubbed and aged. If you take care of your car, your Studebaker body will equal any automobile body on the market.

These are some obvious points which show the car's value.

But the deeper you go into the design and manufacture of the Studebaker E. M. F. "30" the better you will like it. We watch every detail.

Every Studebaker E. M. F. "30" is built not only for the first mile but for the 100,000th mile. In those qualities which make for endurance and lasting satisfaction, the Studebaker E. M. F. "30" is incomparably first. Why? Because it is Studebaker-built, and Studebaker always builds that way.

THIS IS CERTAIN.

The Proof That Maryville Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Miss Harriett McClurg, 405 East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I gave a public statement in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills in September, 1908. Since then I have had occasional attacks of kidney complaint and I have always used Doan's Kidney Pills successfully at such times. I recommend them whenever an opportunity is given me. I was troubled with pain and weakness in my back and hips and could hardly get about. Doan's Kidney Pills corrected these troubles immediately, and after using them I felt better in every way."

Visiting His Brother Here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Miller of Table Grove, Ill., arrived in Maryville Thursday night to visit his brother, L. C. Miller, and family of this city. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Linville were visitors at the Miller home, Mrs. Linville being a sister of Mr. Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will leave Monday evening for their home.

Warning to Automobile Owners, Motorcycles, and Drivers.

You are hereby notified that on June 7th, 1912, there was passed by the board of aldermen of the city of Maryville an ordinance providing the following:

(1.) Every motor vehicle operated within said city must be equipped with brakes, suitable bell, horn or other device for signaling, and shall during the period of one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, display at least two lighted lamps on the front and one red light from the rear of such vehicle. The front lights to be visible at least two hundred feet in the direction such vehicle is going.

(2.) That no person shall run such vehicle at a greater rate of speed than eight miles per hour in the business portion of the city, nor at a greater rate of speed than ten miles in all other portions thereof, and when turning a corner of intersecting highways, or when traversing a curve or corner in the highway or street, where the view is obstructed, the speed of such vehicle shall not be greater than six miles per hour.

(3.) No person shall use any freak horn or other unusual freakish sounding device on such vehicle, nor shall any person operating such vehicle use the device commonly called the "cut out valve" on such vehicle.

(4.) Certain provisions for the operating of such vehicles on the streets and to regulate the same according to the rules of the roads as set out in the state laws upon that subject.

You are further notified that the above provisions may be seen at the office of the city clerk and to acquaint yourselves with the same. You are also notified that the above provisions of said ordinance will be strictly enforced from and after the date of this notice.

Paste this in your hat and don't throw your hat in the ring.

A. S. ROBEY, Mayor.

NEW PLATFORM IS COMPLETED

Will be Presented to Convention After Nominations Are Closed.

BRISTLES WITH PROGRESSIVISM

Document Represents 48 Hours of Continuous Work by Committee and is Lengthy—Many Subjects Covered.

Baltimore, June —Bristling with "progressivism," the platform on which the Democratic party will stand was completed by the committee on resolutions and awaits only the approval of the presidential nominee to be presented to the convention.

The document is the result of 48 hours of work by a committee. It is almost entirely new, although the recommendations of New York were followed in many particulars.

From first to last the resolutions committee's deliberations were characterized by the utmost harmony.

Demanded Progressive Policies.

The unanimous demand was for pronounced declarations in favor of "progressive" policies all along the line and the only differences arose over the best method of expressing this tendency. The result is a platform of generally advanced views, although many of them are less radical than the party declarations of other years.

The document covers every subject of importance which has been the subject of party discussion in four years.

Members of the committee express general satisfaction with the planks and William J. Bryan, who took an active part in framing them, predicted that it would arouse the disapproval of less than a dozen members of the convention.

Under a new rule the platform will not be presented to the convention until after the nomination of the candidates.

A few of its features are as follows:

Tariff for Revenue Only.

Declares for a tariff for revenue only.

Favors immediate downward revision of present duties especially upon necessaries of life. Also favors gradual reduction so as not to interfere with or destroy legitimate industries.

Condemns Republican party "for failure to redeem its promises of 1908 for downward revision."

Takes issue with the Republican platform as to the high cost of living, contending it is largely due to high tariff laws.

Favors vigorous enforcement of the criminal features of the anti-trust law. Demands such additional legislation as may be necessary to crush private monopoly. Favors prohibition of holding companies, interlocking directors, stocks watering, etc.

Toll of the Icebergs.

The list of vessels battered or sunk by icebergs is a long one, and it is well to recall it at a time when all the world is thinking of the Titanic. Thus, to take an example or so at haphazard, in the spring of 1890 four steamers of the England-America route utterly vanished, and in 1899 ten steamers disappeared.

In 1908 the Mongolian was imprisoned for two days in the ice, but escaped; in 1909 the Lake Champlain, the Regulus, the Bonavista, and the Montrose were so battered by the floating ice, that each escaped calamity by a very narrow margin, while none can tell how many fishing smacks are yearly dashed to pieces by these towering, glassy crags.

Women Are Fine Riders.

At the Devon horse show in Philadelphia recently the women riders outclassed the men. They were not professional women riders either, but society girls. They rode like veterans, and mounted on their dashing steeds resented a pretty sight. It was expected that some of the many women competing would drop out, but such was not the case and none were disqualified.

Another Form of Recall.

"Father, what do you think of the recall?"

"Well, my dear, I hardly know. Some people think it is dangerous. But why do you ask?"

"I sent Freddy away last night, and now I'm sorry."

400 KILLED IN CANADIAN STORM

Tornado Hit Regina, Saskatchewan, Causing $10,000,000 Damage.

LEFT 600 FAMILIES HOMELESS

Terrific Wind Crumbled Great Grain Elevators and Business Houses —In Five Blocks 300 Homes Were Destroyed.

Winnipeg, July 1.—Four hundred persons at least are believed to have been killed, and property worth $10,000,000 was destroyed by a tornado, which after a thunderstorm and high wind struck Regina, Saskatchewan, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The local telephone office was wrecked and it is feared that 15 girls employed there were killed.

All telephone and telegraph wires, with the exception of one telegraph wire, are down.

A special train left Winnipeg shortly after 9 o'clock with doctors, nurses and telegraph and telephone repairmen.

New Parliament Building Damaged.

The tornado first struck the new parliament building, just completed at a cost of $2,000,000. The building is of steel and concrete, and while it still stands, it is badly shaken. It then swept northward, mowing a swath six blocks in width through the most fashionable residence district, transforming it into a mass of wreckage. Along one street 300 houses were destroyed and many persons killed. Automobiles filled with people were hurled high in the air and deposited blocks away.

At Eleventh street wholesale warehouses, banking institutions and retail stores, were sent into heaps of ruins.

City in Darkness.

Six big grain elevators were toppled over like tenpins, the timbers being piled in heaps on the track.

All electric lights and power wires were rendered useless and the city is in darkness. All conveyances were pressed into service to convey the dead to the morgues and the injured to the hospitals.

The magnitude of the calamity which Regina had suffered, while growing in realization as the rescue work proceeded, can not yet be fully estimated.

Crowds of volunteers all over the city were assisting in the work of searching the wreckage and for hours hardly a minute went by that a human body or mangled form of some living victim was not uncovered.

Caught Many on Lake.

The sweep of the storm, the worst in the history of the Canadian Northwest, was over a city which only a short time before had completed the work of decking itself in gala attire for the celebration of Dominion day.

Numbers of persons were on the waters of the lake, when the storm broke; five are known to have been drowned. The whole north side of the city was laid low by the storm. Six hundred families are homeless.

GOT FORGER AFTER LONG CHASE

E. R. Morton Led Kansas Officers all Over the West Since 1909— Found at Hiawatha.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 1.—After being on the trail of E. R. Morton, a forger, since 1909, Sheriff E. O. McCain of Jefferson county has just arrived with him. It is charged that Morton forged a check on the Exchange bank at Nortonville and passed it on a merchant of that place. Morton went to Hiawatha to visit relatives and Sheriff McCain found him there after he had tracked him to Portland, Seattle, San Francisco and other Western cities.

Killed by a Hay Rake.

Hunnewell, Kan., July 1.—John Harding, eight-year-old son of a farmer, was killed while raking alfalfa with a team supposed to be gentle. A rake tooth caught in a wire fence, breaking the tongue, and the horses ran, dragging the boy 80 yards. A rake tooth penetrated his skull.

Found Black River Pearl.

Imboden, Ark., July 1.—Black river gave up another fine pearl when Henry Norris of Smithville, mail carrier, laid off a few days and went pearling. He found an extra quality gem which he sold for $300 and which in turn was sold by the dealer for $400.

Harvested on Sunday.

Salina, Kan., July 1.—Because of the ripened condition of the wheat crop and the necessity of cutting the second crop of alfalfa and with the corn fields ready for the cultivator, 200 harvesters were run in the wheat fields of this county on Sunday.

Kansas Helped Wilson.

Baltimore, July 1.—When Kansas changed its vote from 20 for Clark for Wilson in the 20th ballot, it made a noticeable impression upon the convention and Wilson followers had a decided demonstration.

Dedicated Swedish Church.

Scandia, Kan., July 1.—The Swedish Lutherans of Scandia dedicated a new $3,000 church. The building is modernly equipped and has been in course of erection for nearly a year.
